Kip McWilliamsHead Coach

In July of 2007, Indiana Tech announced Kip McWilliams as the Head Baseball Coach. Kip is entering his fifth season as head coach at Indiana Tech. Coach McWilliams has an overall record of 131-103, with four appearances in the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference Championship game and NAIA national tournament. After winning the 2009, 2010, and 2011 WHAC Tournament Championships the Warriors received an automatic bid to the Opening Round of Nationals.

Yearly Breakdown

- 2008 - 29-29, .500, WHAC Runner-up, Region VIII Appearance
- 2009 - 31-26, .556, WHAC Tournament Champions, 4th Place Opening Round (Cleveland, TN)
- 2010 - 34-28, .548, WHAC Tournament Champions, 4th Place Opening Round (Columbus, GA)
- 2011 - 37-20, .633, WHAC Tournament Champions, Runner-up Opening Round (Cleveland, TN)

Coach McWilliams has been very fortunate to coach wonderful athletes at Indiana Tech. In his four seasons, Indiana Tech has produced 14 WHAC All-Conference players, as well as two WHAC Player's of the Year (Will Richards and Justin Medeiros), 17 WHAC Honorable Mention All-Conference, seven WHAC Gold Glove athletes, and 14 WHAC Players of the Week. Nationally in the past three seasons the Warriors have had one All-Region, two Honorable Mention All-Americans and one Pre-Season All-American.

What McWilliams is most proud of is the academic excellence his athletes produce in the classroom. In four seasons, the Warrior baseball teams have had 32 WHAC All-Academic players and an impressive 11 Academic All-Americans. The 2011 team produced a team grade point average of 3.067. The 2010 and 2011 teams have achieved Academic All-American team status recognized by the NAIA

Being born and raised in Bloomington, Ind., McWilliams was a two sport athlete at Bloomington South High School in baseball and football. Even though he was an All-State football player, his love was in the game of baseball.

After graduation, McWilliams played football and baseball at Franklin College for two seasons. Transferring to IUPUI gave him the opportunity to coach at the Division I level for two seasons. During his stint at IUPUI he was in charge recruiting and working with the catchers. For eight seasons, Coach McWilliams was the assistant coach for Marian University. During his stint at Marian, the Knights tallied 230 victories and 170 losses. Marian won five Mid-Central College Conference titles, as well had six Regional appearances.

Coach McWilliams has his Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education from Indiana University. Kip and his wife, formerly Melissa Fadley from Upper Sandusky, Ohio are newlyweds and reside in Fort Wayne.

Zach Brown

Assistant Coach

Zach Brown is entering his first year as an assistant coach for the Indiana Tech baseball program.

Brown is an Indianapolis, Indiana native and played for the Warriors from 2009-2011, and was part of three WHAC Tournament Championship teams. He also earned Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference Honorable Mention honors twice ('10, '11).

In 2011, Brown tied the Indiana Tech all-time record for saves in a season with 10. He ranks second in school history with 14 career saves.

Justin Medeiros

Assistant Coach

Justin Medeiros is entering his first year as an assistant coach for the Indiana Tech baseball program.

A native of Keller, Texas, Medeiros was a two-year starter for the Warriors after transferring in before the 2010 season and helped guide the team to two WHAC Tournament titles. He was named the WHAC Player of the Year following an outstanding junior campaign where he hit .406 with a conference best 13 homeruns, and was second in the WHAC with 15 doubles. His 61 runs scored also ranked second and he was among the leaders with 45 RBI.

In his senior season, Medeiros started all 57 games and finished with a conference best 47 RBI. Adding to his accolades, he earned the WHAC Gold Glove award for his tremendous defensive play.

Taylor Hoisington

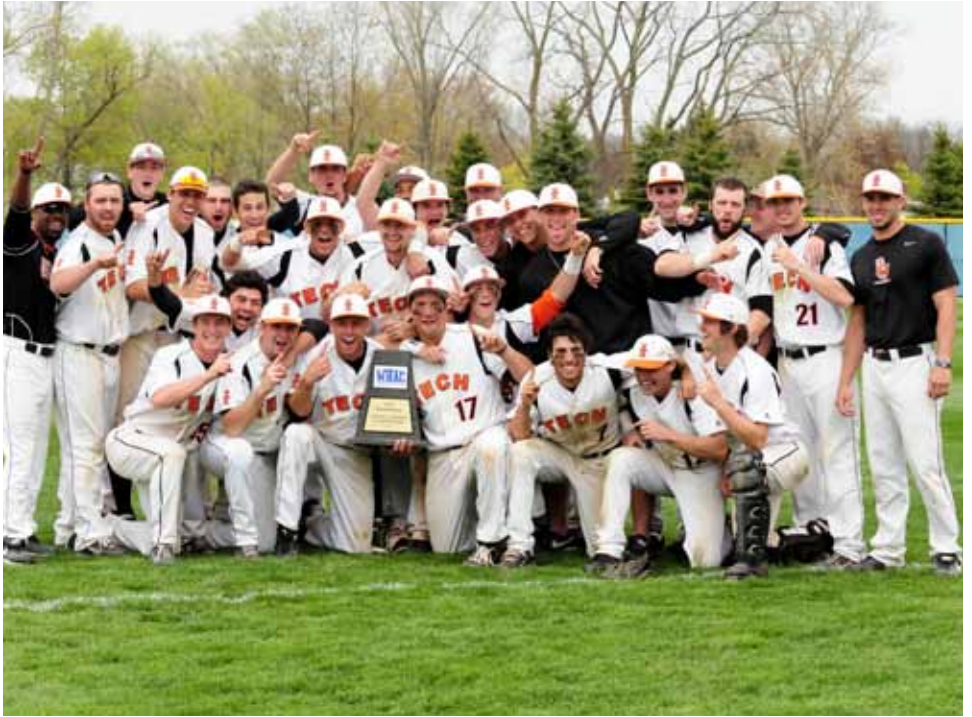

Assistant Coach

Taylor Hoisington is entering his first year as an assistant coach for the Indiana Tech baseball program.

Hoisington, from Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, was an integral part of two WHAC Tournament championships during his time with the Warriors. He was a two-year starter at second base after transferring in before the 2010 season, earning WHAC First Team All-Conference honors in both seasons.

In his junior season, he ranked near the top of every offensive category in the conference. He hit .362, starting all 62 games, with eight homeruns and 16 doubles. He drove in a league best 64 runs and scored 58 times.

Hoisington followed it up with another solid season in his senior year. He again started all 57 games and hit .333 with a team-high eight homeruns, 17 doubles, and led the conference with 71 hits. His 45 runs scored were the most on the team and he also finished second in the WHAC with 45 RBI.
