Professional Title Page

Your Official and Complete Title Goes Here

The APA 7th edition has included a Student Paper for the format. The student paper DOES NOT have an abstract page. This section should be an introduction to your paper; you do not need to indicate that this is an introduction.

For the APA 7 Professional paper, you include the abstract and directly below that you may want to put something called a “keywords” in italics. Next to the keywords you will need to put significant or repetitive words from the abstract that indicate important themes or parts of it. Don’t exceed four words in the keywords.

Keywords: brief, abstract, words

Headings

The first level of headings is bold and centered and the following paragraph indented. See the chart below from Purdue Owl for further heading formatting.

2	Left-aligned, Bold, Title Case Heading
3	Left-aligned, Bold, Italics, Title Case Heading with a Period.
4	Indented, Bold, Title Case Heading with a Period. Text begins on the same line as a regular paragraph
5	Indented, Bold, Italicized, Title Case Heading with a Period. Text begins on the same line as a regular paragraph

In-Text Citations-examples

According to Jones (1998), "Students often had difficulty using APA style, especially when it was their first time" (p. 199). Jones (1998) found "students often had difficulty using APA style" (p. 199); what implications does this have for teachers? She stated, "Students often had difficulty using APA style" (Jones, 1998, para. 6), but she did not offer an explanation as to why. Only use paragraph numbers if page numbers are not available.
